

Saltaire Photogrid 2020 - 2021

Project Participation Terms & Conditions:

- Please note that all individuals and groups taking part in the project do so at their own risk. The project organisers will not be held responsible for any injury, illness or damage to photography equipment caused when conducting the project.
- Please make sure when conducting the project you adhere to the countryside code and do not enter private land without prior permission. Participants will not hold the organisers responsible for inappropriate actions.
- We are aware that some of the intersecting grid lines will fall on inaccessible locations such as over water or on private land. In those instances we ask that you only make photographs as close as is safe to do so and only with the land owners permission.
- All photographers will maintain copyright of the images they produce as part of the project. All photographs submitted will be included in an online archive and you give the right to allow the project organisers to include your photographs in project marketing.
- If a photograph is to be included in an exhibition related to the project the photographer will be notified prior to its inclusion.
- Any photographs uploaded to social media platforms will be done so at the owners risk. The organisers of the project will not be held responsible for any misuse of images online.
